12 Teachers Named Arkansas Teacher of the Year Regional Finalists

LITTLE ROCK — The Arkansas Department of Education is pleased to announce the 12 teachers named 2021 Arkansas Teacher of the Year Regional Finalists. The regional finalists will be recognized and the four state semi-finalists will be announced at an event July 31 at the Governor's Mansion. (The event will adhere to social distancing and virus prevention guidelines and directives.)

"I want to congratulate the regional finalists for their outstanding work and dedication to their students, schools, and communities," Arkansas Department of Education Secretary Johnny Key said. "While one of them will become the next Arkansas Teacher of the Year, all of them have exhibited determination, commitment, and a passion for education and are deserving of this honor."
