Now Hiring: Environmental Officer

Pulaski Regional Solid Waste Management District

The Pulaski Regional Solid Waste Management District is looking for an Environmental Officer (EO) to investigate, manage, administer, and assist in the eradication of illegal dumping in Pulaski County. Responsibilities will also include complementing and supporting EOs, local law enforcement, and code enforcement authorities in the reporting and eradication of illegal tire-dump sites in the five, regional solid waste management districts that make up the nine-county Inter-District Waste Management Program. The EO will also manage the hauler license program for solid waste hauling certification in Pulaski County. The Pulaski Inter-District is headquartered in downtown Little Rock. The EO will be considered an Independent Contractor and not eligible for benefits. Candidate will be required to sign a terms of service agreement. Qualifications for this assignment include the following:

- A Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university or equivalent work experience
- Good oral and written communication, computer and math skills
- A team player with environmental interest and professional appearance
- A good driving record, preferred knowledge of laws, statutes, regulations, ordinances and violations pertaining to solid waste management and illegal dumping
- Ability to complete designated mandatory training for EOs and conduct on-site investigation of areas affected by illegal dumping
- Starting annual independent contractor fee: $45,000

Please submit all resumes to Desi Ledbetter at desiledbetter@regionalrecycling.org

Deadline for resumes to be received is November 22, 2021, at 4:30pm. The Pulaski Regional Solid Waste Management District is an equal opportunity employer.
